

The Right Person Myth Sermon Series

January 31 & February 1, 2015

The myth is that once you find the right person, everything will be all right.

Introduction: A 2012 study in Psychology Today reports,

About ___% of first marriages, ___% of second marriages,
and ___% of third marriages end in divorce.

Unwed parents are _____ times more likely than married parents to split up by the time their child is five.

Week 2: Sex – For Adults Only

Week 3: Becoming the Right Person

Why spend time on a relationship series each year?

Proverbs 14:15, Simple is also translated as naïve.

What do I know about singleness, marriage, and divorce?

I. What do I want you to know?

1. E _____ struggles, faces temptations, has regrets.

2. While true that you are exceptional, you are not an
_____.

3. What you are doing now will be part of your _____.

“Your relational past has a pesky way of showing up at the most inopportune times in your future.”

4. You cannot _____ other people.

5. No one on this earth can make you _____.

6. If you are miserable single, you and your future spouse will be _____ and married.

7. “You _____ me” is a dangerous lie.

8. The longing for intimacy is only fully fulfilled by _____.

9. We are made for more than this _____. Matt 22:24-32

10. God is for you. There is hope!

II. What do I want you to do? (Choose wisely.)

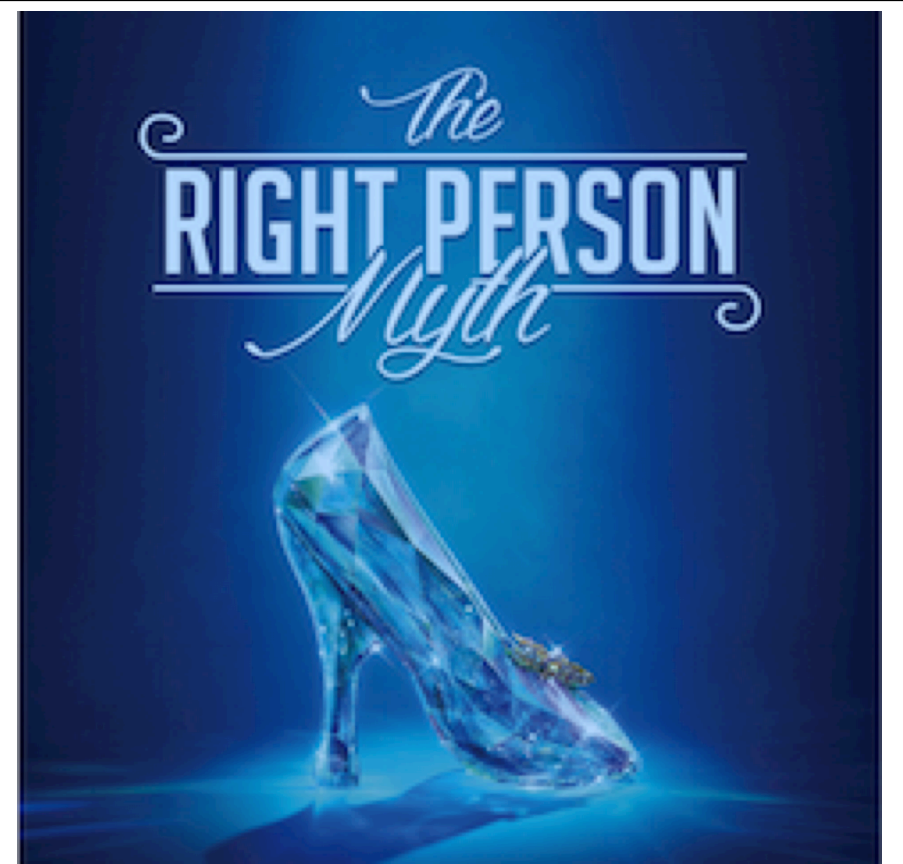

1. If you are married, I invite you to _____ in your marriage. (Matthew 6:19-23a) Guard your _____.

2. If you are single and looking, listen to your c _____.

3. If you are divorced, invest in the healing, forgiving, and growing process for _____ from the divorce being final before dating again.

4. Prepare before you promise. Be capable and accountable.

5. Pray with me.

“The simple believe everything, but the clever consider their steps.”

Proverbs 14:15

