

Say Yes to God
Disrupted Sermon Series: Week 1
Dr. Mark Foster
April 19, 2020

The cross proves that the worst thing is never the last thing.

The Character of God: Psalm 145:8-18

Gracious, merciful, slow to _____ and abounding in steadfast love.

The Lord is _____ to all and has compassion over everything.

God's kingdom never _____.

God's power, authority, and rule cover all _____.

The Lord is _____ and gracious in everything.

God helps those who are _____.

God raises up _____ who are bowed down.

The Lord is _____ and kind in all his doings.

The Lord is _____ to all who call upon him in truth.

The Character of People: Exodus 14:10-12

We are full of _____, and we complain.

We _____ others.

We struggle with _____.

What do you do when you don't know what to do? _____

Most people either: 1. Do the _____ thing again, often with more effort.

2. _____ trying all together. We give up or freeze.

God's Response: Loving instruction. Exodus 14:15-16

Hazards in the Relationship:

We have a hard time asking God to help when the problem is of our own making.

“God does not depend on our willpower and commitment to transform a hopeless situation.” – Dr. Henry Cloud and Dr. John Townsend

We don't _____ when God speaks. Trust is moving with God as the way is made.

We mistakenly think God's power and resources are for _____ people or religious people.

Good News: God provides what we _____ provide for ourselves. Matthew 6:33

God will make a way for you if you _____ on him.

Action Steps: Reach out to God to give you _____ the things you cannot provide for yourself.

Look for the _____ God is sending you to show you the next step.

Trust God in both your _____ and _____. Ephesians 3:20-21

Say to God, _____ me to someone in need.