Finding Your True Self

A Sermon Series
on Ephesians

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Last Week: “Live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us.” - Ephesians 5:2a

The Problem: Our identity is always under _____.

What lies do you believe about yourself? _____

How do we find our identity?

Our identity begins not with who we are, but _____ we are.

Who you are is a _____.

How do we hold on to our identity?

“Therefore take up the whole armor _____, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.” Ephesians 6:13

What we do doesn't define who we are; who we are defines

_____.

We find our identity in Christ not as individuals, but as a

_____.

One of the most important functions of the Body of Christ is to remind one another whose we are. #A2sermon

Action Steps:

1. Identify the lies you believe about your identity.
2. Pray for God to help you find your identity in Christ.
3. This week, remind someone that they are a child of God.
